

Carbon reduction services

-  auditing industry resources such as energy, water and waste streams with savings in operational performance
-  assistance with master-planning considering resource management and the integration of waste streams
-  applied research and commercialisation of carbon reduction facilities from mineral processing industries
-  maritime carbon reduction retrofitting (and R&D) algae photo bioreactors (APB's) to marine vessels

